Mr Lloyd Garrison

Dear sir,

220

You will remember that about the 1st of Oct. last I called upon you in reference to reporting the coming Decade celebration, & that you gave me to understand that you would be glad to have my services. Unless therefore I hear from you to the contrary I shall consider myself as engaged to report the speeches at the rate of $10 an hour for full reports & a proper deduction for abstracts, adding my expenses to Philadelphia & back, which will not exceed $12. I think. If you prefer, I will charge $3 a column for all the matter I furnish, as published in the Standard.

Yours truly

thinking of you a great deal lately & wondering how you are getting on.

I hope you are well & happy. I have been very busy lately.

I have not had time to write you more often.

I am sure you will understand my situation.

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately.

I hope you are well & happy.
